

Deputy Assistant Commissioner Biography

Vince Pranjivan

On September 2, 2008, Vince Pranjivan was appointed to the position of Deputy Assistant Commissioner of the Ontario Region.

Vince began his career with the Canada Revenue Agency in 1981 as a payroll auditor in Vancouver. Over the course of his career with the Agency, Vince has held a broad range of senior management positions at both the national and regional levels, including Chief of Special Investigations, Assistant Director of Audit, National Director of Specialized Compliance, Senior Advisor to the Assistant Commissioner, and Director of Tax Services Offices.

In his current role, Vince is responsible to provide operational and strategic advice, as well as provide leadership to a frontline service organization of over 13,000 employees, delivering programs and services in all areas of income tax, excise tax, goods and services tax, and benefits delivery in one of the largest regional organizations in the CRA.

Vince is a Certified General Accountant (CGA); a graduate of the Government of Canada's highly acclaimed Accelerated Executive Development Program, and has a Masters of Business Administration. Vince has extensive experience in taxation, finance and executive leadership. He has always been a strong proponent of creating a learning organization, and has been instrumental in the development of others within the organization through mentoring and coaching. Vince a member of the Executive Committee of the Ontario Federal Council, and in addition to his daytime duties, Vince teaches at the University of Toronto, the CGA Association, and local colleges. He is the Chair of the Finance and Accounting Advisory Committee for Seneca College.