

Thirteenth Report, July 12, 2010
Advisory Committee on Senior Level Retention and Compensation
Extract

Topics of Focus for the Future

Concerning our strong interest in the promotion of executive health, we look forward to the results of an analysis performed at our request by the Association of Professional Executives of the Public Service of Canada, following their presentation on the health of executives at our November 2009 meeting, on the costs incurred by the Public Service as a result of executive health issues.
