H  l  ne Beauchemin is President of HKBP Inc, the executive coaching firm for senior leaders seeking executive coaching, professional and personal development. Having worked at senior levels in government, H  l  ne has the gift of demystifying leadership. As a result of her many years working with provincial and federal governments in very senior executive positions, she offers her clients coaching based on her wealth of experience. Through her coaching she invites parliamentarians, seasoned executives and their teams as well as board members and association executives, to hone their skills and become the leader people will want to follow and work for.

For the past 7    years, executives at all levels have turned to H  l  ne for help because they know she understands their world and has lived many of the challenges they are facing : “ I’ve moved 36 times in my life; I’ve learned to quickly read an environment and culture” says H  l  ne. A Professionally Certified Integral Coach trained at New Ventures West in San Francisco, an International Coach Federation (ICF) – Professional Certified Coach (PCC) and ICF Ottawa/Outaouais Chapter vice-president, she is committed to coaching as a profession as well as to her own personal development as a person and a coach. Over the past years, a number of certified coaches have gravitated towards H  l  ne and her company. This cadre of competent bilingual coaches all share similar values while bringing their own particular skills to coaching in Ottawa.

H  l  ne is a contributing author to “Winning Without Compromising Yourself, Unlocking personal and professional mastery in the political arena”.
